Viewing/perusing tips:
1. Throughout the bulk of this book, the format is a two-page spread (chart-style); it's important to use the two-page (side-by-side) view in these two sections: pages 32-81; and 84-199 (even # pages on the left side, odds on the right; read across the 5 columns).
2. Remember that with most PDF viewers, you have the option of zooming in/ magnifying the text.

Basic Premise: Only those who believe that all Biblical prophecy HAS been fulfilled, and the everlasting kingdom of Christ HAS been put in place (dating back to AD70), and is now -- and ever will be, expanding -- can truly claim to take Christ at His word on the "last things."

This past-in-fulfillment view is called preterism, and it's the essential last puzzle piece that the Christian church needs to complete the picture of the revealed "whole counsel of God" (Acts 20:27). The salvation of any individual does NOT depend on a proper eschatological position, but the sober fact of the matter is that if Jesus Christ in any way misled people -- through intentional deception OR mere ignorance -- on end-times teachings (or ANYTHING else), he was NOT the sinless, perfect savior he purported to be, and salvation exists for no one. However, we know that because GOD can NOT lie (Titus 1:2, Heb 6:18, etc.), and Jesus Christ IS truly God, He DID tell the absolute truth at all times on all things, from the first (Creation), all the way through to the last (the end of the age that was, and the beginning of the endless age that was to come).

It's high time for the vast majority of professing Christians (especially careless "leaders") to abandon their ever-failing futurist eschatological schemes, and turn their full attention to what Christ and His hand-picked, Holy Spirit-inspired apostles said and wrote about "the end" as it's defined by God's Word, and not by the fevered imaginings of sinful, finite creatures. A NEW REFORMATION in last-things doctrine is what is sorely needed for today's Christian church on earth to flourish. NO innovation required, needed, or permitted; just believe that what GOD says is true, and let every mere man be a liar (Rom 3:4). THAT is the only way forward!
