

George Acland New York Marathon for CatWalk

Fundraising Sale!

I am George Acland, a 27 year old junior doctor currently living in Wellington but call home somewhere between Christchurch, Tauranga and Auckland. In November I am fortunate enough (some say foolish enough!) to be running the New York Marathon as part of the CatWalk New York Marathon team.

CatWalk (www.catwalk.co.nz) is a New Zealand charity which aims to find a cure for spinal cord injuries by raising money to support the scientific opinion that a cure can be found and to promote and generate funding for research into a cure.

I became involved with CatWalk through my father, Rick, who is a trustee of CatWalk and also a doctor at the Burwood Spinal Unit in Christchurch. For me this is a fantastic opportunity to not only participate in an amazing event but raise money for a tremendous New Zealand charity which aims to find a cure for injuries which rob one New Zealander every five days of the ability to enjoy those physical pursuits I love so much.

Thanks to my generous supporters I am able to offer a range of top quality luxury items for sale to raise funds for CatWalk as part of my run in the New York Marathon in November 2010 for the CatWalk team.

For a limited time these items are offered at prices below those normally offered to the public with all proceeds going to CatWalk. Please note that all costs associated with my New York Marathon run are being met by my family and me.

All these wonderful products are at incredible prices, well below normal retail price. Add to this that purchasing an item contributes money directly to this great charity and I don't think you'll be able to say no!

All items offered are subject to availability and all orders must be placed by October 31. Products are allocated on a first in first served basis.

To order please email george.catwalk@gmail.com with details of the item(s) (including colour or style) and how many you wish to purchase and I will contact you with confirmation of availability and bank account details.

Luxury Holiday rental homes
