

He Did It All For Me!

March 30, 2013

What a beautiful thought—He did it all for me! But wait, it was not just for me, but it was for you as well. Isn't that one of the most precious thoughts that you ever thunk of. Jesus, the very and only begotten Son of God, well, He did it all for us! That is what puts the "AMAZING" in the "Amazing Grace". The first time I ever heard the story of Jesus, (Heard it with my heart) I could not believe that someone, who I did not even know, loved me so much, even more than my own mother; Jesus loved me so much that He died for me — a rotten, no-account sinner. He died for me! Oh my, if that isn't love, then I really do not know what love is about. Yes, Yes, Yes, that is love!

I really just wanted to share what Jesus is doing for me each morning - I just wanted to go an extra mile with you. I really just wanted to be a faithful friend to you. No one is paying me. No one is making me. It is only an act of love on my part. I just wanted to bless you with the over-flow from my time in the morning. I just wanted to share with you some of the blessing that I am being blessed with. Bless you my dear friend!!!

Not too awful long ago, me, my family and my friend, we had went to dinner at a local restaurant in Sweetwater, Tennessee. It was called the "Dinner Bell". It is the kind of place that truck drivers go out of their way to eat at. It is not cheap, as poor folks count as cheap, but it is the kind of place that you save up for and go to once every couple of months. They have this buffet that is out of this world, with home type cooking that will definitely make you fat. My group was really enjoying themselves (me too) and secretly, I was dreading the bill.

When we were through, I went to pay the bill, and the waitress informed me, that some anonymous person had paid our entire bill. Wow! If that was not a blessing, I do not know what a blessing could be! The person did not wait to be thanked, they did not want to be recognized, they did not wait around for applause, they just paid my bill and left. My waitress informed me that this person did this on a regular basis for a lot of people. Now, to me, this reminded me of what Jesus has done for us all. You know something, I look for this kind of behavior in every Christian that I meet. I do not mean that I am looking for a hand-out. No, I am just looking for the character of Jesus in other Christians. The follow Scripture is, to me, a good example of the mighty love of God:

John 3:16-17

- (16) For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
- (17) For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

Romans 5:6-8

- (6) For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
- (7) For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
- (8) But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

May God Bless You, Evangelist, Gerald W. Hubbard
