AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companion. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
- Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the sport, the American Kennel Club, or themselves while taking part in the sport.

EXHIBITORS PLEASE NOTE
No smoking in the building.

Acknowledgment of entries will be made as soon as practicable with tickets and/or identification cards. The person accompanying a dog must show tickets of admission and identification before the dog will be received. Should such acknowledgment not be received by the exhibitor within a reasonable time, please notify the Show Secretary.

Class cash prizes will be paid in the ring to the person showing the dog. Claims for prize money must be made in the ring before the judging of that breed is over, and the Secretary's Office advised at once. The Secretary and the Show giving club disclaim any liability for cash prizes after the judging of the breed is over.

Recording Fee of $0.50 and the $3.00 AKC Event Service fee will be required for each dog entered at any Licensed or Member Club Show, Obedience Trial or Tracking Test. This recording fee and service fee is to be collected by the Show Giving Club and paid to the American Kennel Club. If a dog is entered in more than one class in the show, the recording fee is to be collected on the first entry only. .

Entry fees shall not be refunded in the event a dog is absent, disqualified, excused by veterinarian or judge, or barred from competition by action of the Show Committee. If because of riots, civil disturbances or other acts beyond the control of the management it is impossible to open or to complete the show, no refund or entry will be made. Returned checks do not constitute a valid entry. The Chicago Collie Club may add a collection fee to the amount of each returned check. Subsequent returned checks from the same exhibitor may result in their being placed on a cash only basis.

Errors on Entry Blanks Owners are responsible for errors in making out entry forms, whoever may make such errors. No entry fee will be refunded in the event of such errors or cancellations of entries after published closing date.

Entry Form Changes, additions or corrections, MUST be received in writing or by telegram prior to the closing of entries. Those received by telephone are not acceptable.

The Owner or Handler of each dog is solely responsible for having it ready at ringside when the class is ready to be judged. The Show-Giving Club and the Superintendent have no obligation or responsibility for providing service through a public address system or stewards or runners for the purpose of locating dogs that are not brought into the ring when required. All dogs must be on a leash or confined to crates or exercise pens except when being judged. There will be no private exercise pens inside the show building. Unentered dogs, including those under six months of age, are not allowed in the building.

The Show-Giving Club, the Show Secretary, their Agents, employees, etc., assume no responsibility for any loss, damage or injury sustained by exhibitors, handlers, or to any dogs or property and further assume no responsibility for injury to children not under the control of their parents or guardians.

SHOW SITE/RV HOOK-UP: Electrical hook up available only for $25 a day.
Must notify Show Secretary in Advance.
